Design's 4-letter Word

CONTRAST

Make different things look different, make similar things look similar.

REPETITION

Use patterns so that users can learn to identify objects quickly.

ALIGNMENT

The human eye likes pleasing layouts. Use Left, Center & Right align to organize your page.

PROXIMITY

Group similar functionality and information together.

WHICH DETAILS DO I NEED TO KNOW IF I WANT TO GO TO THE EVENT?

WHICH DETAILS MAKE ME WANT TO GO TO THIS EVENT?

HOW MUCH IS THIS GOING TO COST ME?

WHAT INFORMATION IS MISSING? WHAT ELSE WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW?

Re-design this Poster

Think About C.R.A.P.

Which information is similar and should be grouped together?

Which information is different and should look different?

What is the most important piece of information someone needs to know?

Sketch a new design! Don't worry about colors. Stay concerned with the way you layout the information on the page.

Feedback is Important!

Two of my favorite tenets of design:

- Friends don't let friends design alone (i.e. share your designs with others).
- Stubbornness is the worst trait of a designer.

Take a picture of your design and share it in the Facebook Group!!

You may be surprised how often C.R.A.P. can help you. Other entrepreneurs will pay someone $1K+ to design their pitch deck. NOT YOU!

Try your hand at redesigning this poster. It has far more information than the car wash.
